Live in a field of harmonious frequencies.

John Haan – creator of the NEXI systems

A journey of alignment

„Some people have more abilities to feel, see and help on an energetic level than others. For me it has been a profound part of my life for a long time, helping thousands of people passionately where I could. But it was draining my energy too much so that I stopped it and wished for a more peaceful life out of the spotlight. I wanted to create a device that serves humanity, animals and the global collective. A device that would inspire people to be the best and healthiest version of themselves. To help them return to their original state of being – to how we were before all harmful radiation, air and water pollution, engineered food, poor nutrition and most of all, the stressful life we are facing in general. These influences are weakening us with all of the consequences for our wellbeing. The device would end up working so incredibly fast that it literally bathes the person in a cocoon of energy and frequencies. Resulting in harmonizing our physical and energetic body, so that negative influences may have less affects on our system.

On a certain day, mid 2008, I suddenly got goosebumps on my whole body, I knew I felt something big as I was trembling with positive sensations. I got a very strong feeling that I had to start making something new...

Then the ultimate happened. On Christmas Day 2008 I got a very clear vision how to realize this. That same night I received an unimaginable amount of information. My head was full and I had the urge to start writing it down which resulted, to my great surprise, in about 20 pages with the entire manual for building the NEXUS INFI-NITY, including that name. All the pieces of the puzzle fell together. Being aligned with my mission to build and launch NEXUS, I met and was being introduced to exactly the right people who could help me with programming, design and engineering. Looking back I must admit that this was a profound process which took until mid-2012 to be completed.

On January 1st 2013 we officially started building the device for the future of humanity. In the beginning I personally sold professional devices, meanwhile fine-tuning and improving it further and further.

In June 2021 we started preparing for the next phase in development, introducing amazing people with tremendous expertise to the company. We believe we're really at the edge of bringing humanity back to a higher consciousness with more self-awareness and less physical discomforts."

„Unleash“ moments

NEXI offers energetic coherence, promoting energetic balance that can result in stress reduction, supporting the organism's ability to self-regulate.

THE EFFECTS OF STRESS

We are living in a constantly changing environment. Our bodies and minds continuously strive to adapt and deal with physical, emotional and psychological influences. Stress is the process of holding your own. It is therefore a normal and useful process. When under stress over prolonged periods of time, though, our body and mind may lose some of its ability to regain a state of balance. That is why stress can also be harmful to your health and wellbeing – both mentally and physically.

Chronic stress situations can lead to overloading imbalances. The results might be overweight, muscle pain, poor sleep, inability to relax, tension complaints, sexual inactivity, concentration problems, irritability, poor regeneration, little or no energy, etc.

But long-term stress can also lead to chronic illnesses. This is due to the formation of low-grade inflammations. Research shows that low-grade inflammation promotes other conditions. For example, they can be linked to conditions such as type 2 diabetes, lung diseases, autoimmune diseases, cardiovascular diseases, neurological disorders, Alzheimer's, or arthritis. Therefore, it is of the utmost importance to combat psychological and physical stress preventively.

NEXI Home assists you and your family by taking the stress level down. In this way, the body's own ability of self-regulation is supported.

UNLEASH YOURSELF

Our world offers ever new challenges and opportunities for our growth and development. These never ending dynamics give us space to step up to the plate and become who we are meant to be. Embrace change, unleash your limitless potential and bring a new balance into your life.

NEXI Home offers ways to experience your "Unleash" moments. The powerful field of frequencies will help you on your journey of transformation so you find your way, make decisions that align with your goals and take action. Balancing these dynamics in yourself and important aspects of your environment like family, business, sports, spirituality and health will lay the foundation for a sustainably happy life.

„We will be more successful in all our endeavors if we can let go of the habit of running all the time, and take little pauses to relax and re-center ourselves. And we'll also have a lot more joy in living.“

Frequency-Specific-Field, Coherence & Resonance

NEXI combines two unique technologies and thus creates a field of harmonious frequencies.

Magnetic field applications are a well-known method of supporting the body's own mechanisms and powers of creating energetic balance. The effective functions of a magnetic field depend on the frequency and strength of the magnetic waves. Depending on the type of device, NEXI works with 1, 2 or 4 magnetic coils, creating a magnetic field of up to ten meters in diameter.

The NEXI systems are equipped with over 600.000 different frequencies. These are transmitted into the magnetic field at great speed, charging it with the most beneficial frequency combination for your wellbeing. In this way NEXI creates what we call a Frequency-Specific-Field (FSF).

NEXI creates a field that supports you throughout your entire day. No matter, if you learn, cook, dance, work out or sleep.

This field combines the benefits of classical magnet field application with the power of specific frequency application.

On a purely physical level the effects of stress and tension shall be relieved and mitigated through increased oxygen intake and the reduction of metabolic waste. The normal body functions shall be activated.

The regenerative results can be stunning. The magnetic field generates naturally derived energy in cells, therefore supporting the cell's natural functions and abilities.

At the same time frequencies support the body to regain its natural ability to energetically self-regulate. The body can seamlessly adapt the frequencies. When frequencies pass through cells, they stimulate many of the electrical and chemical processes in the body's tissue.

Furthermore we find the phenomenon of resonance, which is a natural process. In the context of working with frequencies, there is a resonance when two different frequencies go into resonance with each other. This means that the two frequencies have the same vibration – as it were „they recognize each other“.

Every living organism has its

Our body is like a gigantic orchestra, constantly playing the most complex and beautiful compositions nature could have imagined. When we are not well, the natural harmony inside our body is compromised.

own frequency. The moment this frequency is overshadowed for prolonged periods of time (e.g. due to stress) one's own natural frequency cannot create a naturally flowing balance anymore.

The natural frequency is in a way dominated by an unnatural frequency, with all the possible consequences that entails. NEXI offers natural specific frequencies that can lead to a „recognition“ by the organisms concerned.

The moment an organism recognizes this frequency, the resonance effect takes place. The organism then starts to vibrate again in it's natural frequency so that the organism is no longer overshadowed by the unnatural frequency.

In short, you could describe the resonance effect as: „I recognize this“ or „I need this now“. NEXI works therefore on the principle of bio-intelligence, trusting the body to resonate with the frequencies it needs.

Besides the resonance effect another phenomenon occurs. Imagine a beautiful composition by Vivaldi or Mozart.

What makes this music so beautiful and perfect? Harmony.

A healthy organism is like a complex and perfectly harmonious musical composition consisting of our body, mind, emotions and soul. All parts complement each other perfectly and are resonating as they should. Energetically we are then in a state of coherence. This state is in a constant flux to maintain energetic equilibrium. Through lifestyle, age, external influences, acute or chronic ailments parts of our organism lose the ability to regulate and therefore the state of energetic coherence.

The frequencies NEXI offers form an energetically coherent pattern. When the out-of-balance organism comes into the proximity of NEXI's coherent field (FSF) the incoherent becomes coherent again. It is like jump-starting a car.

This combination of resonance and coherence in the Frequency-Specific-Field is what makes NEXI truly unique.

NEXI for everyone

Everyone can benefit from the numerous possibilities with NEXI – individuals or groups, regardless of your age, fit or longing for more fitness, children or animals. In short, for all those who wish to have more quality of life and want to be energetically supported in their daily activities and needs.

Choose a NEXI program that can support you and your personal needs. Relaxation, better sleep, more creativity, better concentration, support during yoga or sports, or while learning to playing a musical instrument.

Because NEXI's benefits are not limited by cables or applicators, it is perfectly suited for families, teams or groups. Opt for programs that can contribute to more focus during yoga classes, create a relaxing atmosphere in your home or supercharge creativity at the office.

Our experience has shown that animals, regardless of the species can also benefit from NEXI's field of harmonious frequencies.

The possibilities are almost endless. Take control of your wellness.
